

E Diamond Nine activity

(adapted from RE Today (2016) Understanding Christianity, Birmingham: CEP)

To enable children/young people to hold balanced and well-informed conversations about religion and worldviews	To enable children/young people to explore the meaning of their existence and their purpose in life	To pass on the truth and traditions of a particular faith or belief system
To promote spiritual, moral, social and cultural development	To prevent extremism and radicalisation	To help children/young people work out how to live a good life
To equip children/young people with knowledge and understanding of religion and worldviews	To inspire life-long engagement with and/or study of religions and beliefs	To enable children/young people to flourish as citizens in a pluralistic and global community
